Fire Safety Advice For Fire Safety Week 2026

Ensure your smoke alarm works well by:

1. Testing it every Tuesday, test the smoke alarm by pressing and holding the test button until it activates.
2. Changing the battery when needed and never borrow batteries.
3. Cleaning the casing every six months.
4. Replacing the alarm every ten years.

You can find more advice and a video on what to look out for to keep you and your community safe: https://www.fireireland.ie/fire-safety/fire-safety-week-2026/

Update from Listowel Autism Friendly town

It has been a busy month for the committee:

- 20 businesses / organisations accredited as autism friendly champions. 10 more are being supported to help them achieve champion status.
- The Listowel Roses Family Day – We were delighted to be part of the Listowel Roses Harvest Festival Family Day. Supporting the autistic community by being available & providing a quiet space, ear defenders & fidget items if needed.
- Attended Kerry Community Awards - We were a finalist in the inclusion Community category of the Kerry Community awards.

Cora O'Brien, Maire Logue & Dawn Harnett attended the awards event at The Rose Hotel, Tralee. What a surprise when we were named as the winner! It's an honour to receive the award as it recognises the hard work of the Committee & the Champions who are making Listowel a community where EVERYONE belongs.

- The committee celebrated their win with a fabulous cake provided by Garvey's Supervalu Listowel

Volunteer at Buds

Bud's Resource Centre Ballyduff is looking for volunteers under the following positions:

- After Schools Positions
- Creche and Pre-school
- Reception
- Parent & Community Supports
- Fundraising
- Kitchen and Café Duties
- Administration and IT

It is a fantastic social aspect and a way of making new friendships

It is very fulfilling and satisfying to support a cause that helps others. You will be part of a welcoming, supportive and dynamic tea. 98% of people who volunteer say it makes them a happier person.

You will get experience and learn new skills, or maybe develop on skills you already have. This is helpful if you wish to pursue a career in social/ childcare/ community/ family support areas. Also, prospective employers like to see volunteering on CVs

It is great fun!

Movember 2026

Make a Teddy. Spread a little Joy

Could your teddy become the next star of Today?

The Irish County Hairdressing Association (ICA) and RTÉ Today Show are joining forces for a brand-new nationwide Teddy Bear Competition — and we want to see your creativity!

Whether you knit, sew, crochet, patchwork, upcycle or simply get creative, make a teddy with plenty of personality and let your imagination run wild!

Your teddy must be no more than 15 inches / 40cm in length.

There's a fantastic prize for the overall winner: a two-night getaway + a Hisense Smart Washing Machine!

And there's a lovely feel-good twist — all suitable teddies entered will be donated to charities across Ireland.

12 semi-finalists will have the chance to appear on Today, with four finalists making it through to the Grand Final .

HOW TO ENTER

Send your finished teddy to:

The ICA Today Show Teddy Bear Competition

A gentle, accessible session designed to support movement, flexibility and relaxation.

Sean Kelly MEP to join North Kerry and Europe event at Teach Siamsa Finuge

Sean Kelly MEP will be the guest speaker at a special North Kerry and Europe evening

When: Friday, October 23 at 7.30pm

Where: Teach Siamsa, Finuge

The event is being held in conjunction with Teach Siamsa as part of the Communicating Europe Initiative (CEI) and commemorates the Ireland's Presidency of the Council of the European Union. It will bring together European affairs, local culture, music and storytelling, exploring the connections between North Kerry, Ireland and Europe.

The evening will be moderated by Jimmy Deenihan and Audrey Galvin, with Sean Kelly MEP discussing Ireland's place in Europe and the importance of the European Union to rural communities such as North Kerry. This will be followed by an open discussion with the audience.

A central part of the evening will be Rambling Europe Stories Across Borders, inspired by the traditional rambling house and the importance of storytelling in preserving the experiences and memories of communities.

Members of the public are being invited to become part of the evening by contributing their own stories. These might be traditional rambling house stories or local memories, stories that cross borders, or personal reflections of Ireland's membership of the European Union and how Ireland and local communities have changed during that time.

Contributions on the night will be recorded as part of the Communicating Europe Initiative, capturing local voices and experiences and celebrating the stories that connect North Kerry with communities across Europe.

Traditional music will also feature during the evening, celebrating North Kerry's rich cultural heritage and its connections with a wider European identity.

Everyone is welcome – whether you have a story or memory to share or simply want to come along, listen and join the conversation. If you wish to contribute on the night please contact us in advance at teachsiamsafinuge@gmail.com with subject "North Kerry and Europe Event"

Numbers are limited and advance booking is required.

Please email daniel.murphy@listowelfrc.ie for the Zoom link

- Monday 19th October 7pm
  - Topic: De-mystifying LGBT+ terminology and language
  - Description: This is a one-hour webinar open to everyone who would like to learn the meaning of LGBT+, including information on sexual orientations, gender identities, and pronouns. They will not only discuss the meaning of the acronym, sex and gender, and what it all means, we will also discuss Irish LGBT+ history, and suggestions on how to approach the conversation with someone when you are unsure of their identity, and how to ask questions in a respectful manner.
- Monday 2nd November 7pm
  - Topic: Understanding and supporting your LGBT+ child
  - Description: This is a one-hour webinar open to parents and caregivers who would like to learn more about what it means to be LGBT+, and how this impacts the young person in our life. They will discuss how to support your child or young person in navigating school, family, and social lives, mental health, and figuring out their identity. They will work through scenarios around asking questions, fears, and what to say to friends and family, as well as bust some myths.
- Monday 16th November 7pm
  - Topic: Creating safe spaces for LGBT+ people
  - Description: This is a two-hour webinar open to anyone who volunteers in the community and would like to make their organisation or group an open and safe space for LGBT+ individuals. They will discuss the meaning of LGBT+, as well as how to be an ally to the LGBT+ community. This includes how to make your organisation or meeting space open and inviting, make it clear that LGBT+ individuals are welcome, identify and address barriers to access, and how to create or adapt policies/ procedures and actions to make your group or organisation inclusive as possible.
- Monday 30th November 7pm
  - Topic: Debunking disinformation and the impact of hate
  - Description: This is a one-hour webinar open to everyone who would like to learn more about misinformation, disinformation, and myths being spread about the LGBT+ community in recent years, and the impact that this is having on both LGBT+ people and the wider community. They will discuss the facts and fiction, where this is coming from, the impact it is having, how to identify and address it.
- Monday 14th December 7pm
  - Topic: How to handle discrimination, bullying, and harassment
  - Description: This is a one-hour webinar open to everyone who would like to learn more about discrimination, bullying, and harassment at the LGBT+ community. Equality and Human Rights Training Programme: Equal By Design

'Transform your understanding transform your work'

In today's world, both locally and globally, the need for equality and human rights is more pressing than ever. This is now rightly reflected in organisational objectives across a range areas from Public Sector Duty to tendering and funding applications requirements. With increasing inequality and challenges to fundamental rights, fostering a strong culture of equality and human rights is crucial

This training provides a comprehensive foundational framework to help you achieve that goal.

Who Should Attend?

- NGOs seeking to strengthen their capacity in equality and human rights
- Public sector professionals working with socially excluded groups
- Businesses committed to advancing diversity and inclusion

Delivery Format

Two half-day workshops (9:30 AM – 1:00 PM)

Workshop 1: Key Concepts and Historical Evolution of Equality & Human Rights (E&HR)

Workshop 2: Legal Frameworks and Practical Applications of E&HR

Both workshops are designed as standalone modules, so while attending both is recommended, it is not required.

If you would like further information or would like to discuss delivering the training in your area, please feel free to contact Robert at carerevolution@gmail.com
