

Sláinte Siobhan: A Legacy of Community and Compassion

SLÁINTE SIOBHÁN

the best is yet to come".

In Kerry's heart, where the green hills roll,
Stands a legacy, etched in soul.
For over twenty years, a beacon bright,
Siobhan, our guiding light.

In the halls of Kerry County Council, her voice did ring,
A champion for the community, her heart did sing.
From dawn's first light to twilight's close,
Her dedication to service forever shows.

Community engagement, her noble quest,
Supporting us all to be our best.
With a kind heart and steadfast hand,
She nurtured unity across our land.
Through trials and triumphs, she stood tall,
Encouraging, inspiring, uplifting us all.
Her spirit, a tapestry, richly woven,
With threads of compassion, deeply interwoven.

Now as she steps into well-earned rest,
We honour her journey, truly blessed.
Siobhan, your impact will forever stay,
In the lives you've touched, day by day.

So, here's to you, with gratitude profound,
For the seeds of greatness, you've spread around.
May your retirement be filled with peace and grace,
Knowing you've made Kerry a better place.
Though the council's halls may miss your stride,
In every heart, your legacy abides.
Siobhan, we celebrate you today,
And wish you joy as you find a new way.
